Dear TVS, Inc.,

My name is Allison Snyder, I am a student at Western Carolina University, but I have lived in Brevard for a long time now. Upon entering Western Carolina University, I found a calling to help people with disabilities. I quickly changed my major to find something to do with people with disabilities, and I switched from Elementary Education to Inclusive Education which is Special Education and Elementary Education as one major. I began working with the UP Program at WCU, and it is much like your organization. So, I am writing to thank you for what you do. I have never realized the importance of your work until I went to college and experienced it for myself.

I am glad to see your company in my hometown. Creating opportunities for people with disabilities is not an easy task as I get to see the behind the scenes of that daily. I appreciate your work to find jobs, housing, and support services for the people in our community who need a little extra help and encouragement in their daily lives. It is important to teach life skills, create an inclusive environment so they can be involved in the community, and giving an opportunity for meaningful employment is amazing. Often, when people with disabilities graduate high school, their families assume they have nothing else left to do. That is why I am thankful for your presence in our community.

I personally know a few people with disabilities who have went to TVS for jobs and quickly found a place to work. I also know people who work with you to make this possible for these people. Maybe one day I will find my way to help as well, because supporting these people bring joy to my heart as I am sure it does yours as well. Not to mention all the other important work you make possible such as food pantries, supporting our military, and feeding the hungry children around the world. This is an amazing asset to Brevard, and what you do does not go unnoticed. Continue the hard work and thank you for everything you do.

Sincerely,

Allison Snyder
